Here's what I liked about my TF and the way that they ran section:

Here's what I liked about my TF and the way that they ran section:

did gratification every section
Very inclusive; very welcoming and approachable; explained material in an engaging way
She made section fun and engaging. She also helped with a lot of questions that I had.
She is very considerate with people who are not able to turn on their cameras, and she radiates joy and positivity throughout the whole class.
Mindfulness practices every section helped me get to know my section mates and Elizabeth! I also felt very at ease participating. Elizabeth also was very attentive to our time: when we ran over section by a few minutes one week, she took off those minutes the next week! That was really thoughtful of her even though I would have been happy to stay the entire time.
Loved the gratitude sharing!

Here's where I thought my TF and the way they ran section could improve:

N/A
did not tell us about upcoming assignments until later when they were almost due
One thing that I noticed was that a section member of mine struggled with instructions and always asked for clarification when we were in breakout groups. I personally always felt Elizabeth's explanations were clear, but maybe making instructions for tasks visual as well as spoken out loud?
Standardizing reviews for each section. One time I had to go to another section due to conflicts and their review in the other section was difficult, yet thorough (which is what I'm looking for).
I think maybe going over deadlines and assignments would be nice
